Discipline, Committee on

The Committee on Discipline (COD) shall consider such cases of alleged misconduct by students and student organizations as shall be brought to its attention. The Committee shall act with power in all circumstances, including suspension and expulsion of a student from the Institute, revocation of a degree, revocation of recognition for a student group, and loss of a student organization residence. A COD decision to suspend or expel a student, revoke a degree, revoke recognition of a student group, or terminate a student organization residence may be appealed to the Chancellor on grounds described by the COD Rules & Regulations.

From Rules and Regulations:

The Committee on Discipline shall consist of six elected members of the Faculty, three undergraduate and two graduate students, and the Dean for Undergraduate Education, the Dean for Student Life, and the Dean for Graduate Education, ex officis, or representatives as designated by the respective Deans. Past members who have completed their terms may, for a period of three years thereafter, be called to fill out a quorum for a particular hearing, only one such member to serve in a given hearing.
