Student Life, Committee on

The Committee on Student Life (CSL) is concerned with the quality of the learning and living environment of the MIT community. The duties and responsibilities of the CSL include (a) effecting Institute-wide support services to students by maintaining formal and informal relationships among students, the Institute, and the Faculty; (b) modifying policies pertinent to student life and making recommendations to the Faculty and the Vice Chancellor and Dean for Student Life; (c) encouraging innovation in programs, including the coordination and review of initiatives; (d) interacting with other Faculty Committees and student governing organizations and communicating with the MIT community; and (e) serving as the standing Faculty advisory body to the Vice Chancellor and Dean for Student Life.

The Committee on Student Life consists of six elected members of the Faculty, three undergraduate and three graduate students, and, ex officio nonvoting, the Vice Chancellor and Dean for Student Life. The three undergraduate students normally includes one sophomore, one junior, and one senior.
